Brass Table Lamp 'Trombone'

Jo Hammerborg for Fog & Mørup, table lamp model 'Trombone', brass, metal, Denmark, 1960s

A Scandinavian Modern table lamp in brass, the 'Trombone' was designed by Jo Hammerborg in 1966 and made by Fog & Mørup in Denmark during the 1960s. A slim golden cylinder hangs between two upright rods and pivots on its axis like an instrument held at rest, so the light can be tipped towards a page, a wall or the ceiling with one easy turn.
