'Colonna' Large Sculptural Metal Table Lamp

Ingo Maurer, 'colonna' large sculptural metal table lamp, Germany, 1960s

This very rare, large table lamp by Ingo Maurer is an exceptional example of late 1960s German modernist lighting design. Designed in 1968 and produced during the same period, the lamp reflects Maurer's early exploration of sculptural minimalism and refined industrial aesthetics. The architectural base, executed in folded metal with a rich untouched patina, gives the piece a strong geometric presence while preserving the authenticity and character developed over decades of age.
