LCW Lounge Chair

Charles & Ray Eames for Evans Plywood Company, lcw lounge chair, United States, Before 1949

Designed in 1946 by Charles and Ray Eames, the LCW (Lounge Chair Wood) remains one of the most celebrated and influential furniture designs of the twentieth century. Developed as part of the Eameses' groundbreaking molded plywood experiments, the chair introduced a new approach to comfort, combining organic form, ergonomic support, and industrial innovation in a design that continues to feel remarkably contemporary.
