Model 180 Marble Table Lamp

Florence Knoll for Knoll International, model 180 marble table lamp, United States, 1960s

This refined Model 180 table lamp was designed by Florence Knoll for Knoll International. Defined by its architectural simplicity and careful use of materials, the lamp combines a solid Carrara marble base with a generously proportioned fabric shade. The restrained composition reflects Florence Knoll's characteristic approach to interiors and furniture, in which clear geometry, functionality and high-quality materials take precedence over decoration.
