Model 2530-6, 4-Seater Bench

Florence Knoll for Knoll International, model 2530-6, 4-seater bench, Belgium, 1960s

A refined and highly architectural example of Florence Knoll's influential approach to modern furniture design, the Model 2530 four-seat bench perfectly embodies the disciplined elegance and rational aesthetic that defined mid-century modernism. Designed with a strong emphasis on proportion, structure, and material honesty, the bench reflects Florence Knoll's background in architecture and her vision of creating furniture as an integrated extension of interior space, rather than purely decorative objects.
