Model 72 Dining Chair

Eero Saarinen for Knoll International, model 72 dining chair, United States, 1960s

Who doesn't feel like a boss in this Saarinen-designed chair? For over 70 years, this piece (model 72) has been popular in executive board offices and residential interiors. This design instantly upgrades any dining room, living room or bedroom. The organically shaped chair, with a oak wooden frame, is upholstered in blue/green hairy Pierre Frey fabric and has all-new foam interiors.

With its sculptural silhouette and refined proportions, the Model 72 perfectly captures Saarinen's vision of modern elegance. Timeless, confident, and effortlessly sophisticated.

This chair was made by De Coene for Knoll, in Belgium.
