Model LT316 "Sfumato" Floor lamp

Carlo Nason for Mazzega, model lt316 "sfumato" floor lamp, Italy, 1970s

Designed by Carlo Nason for Mazzega in the 1970s, the Model LT316 floor lamp is among the most accomplished examples of modular Murano glass lighting from the period. Composed of individually hand-blown glass elements stacked upon a bronze base, the design achieves a remarkable balance between sculptural presence and functional elegance.
