Murano Glass Table Lamp, Set of 2

Leucos / La Murrina, murano glass table lamp, Italy, 1970s

These elegant triangular Murano opaline glass table lamps from Italy, circa 1970s, are sculptural expressions of refined Italian craftsmanship. Hand-blown on Murano by La Murrina, the geometric triangular form is softened by the milky translucence of the opal glass, creating a subtle balance between structure and fluidity. The armatures are created by Leucos (an Italian lighting company founded in 1962). When illuminated, the lamps emit a warm, diffused glow that enhances their architectural shape and adds a calm, atmospheric presence to any interior. Both functional and decorative, they are timeless design objects, ideal for a living space, hallway, or bedroom.
