Quadrifoglio Table Lamp

Guzzini Ufficio Progetti for Guzzini, quadrifoglio table lamp, Italy, 1970s

Bring a touch of Italian mid-century design into your interior with the Quadrifoglio Lamp by iGuzzini. Inspired by the four-leaf clover, its distinctive shape diffuses a soft, ambient glow while adding a playful yet refined presence to any space.

Founded in 1912, Guzzini is celebrated for its innovative use of acrylic and its seamless balance of form and function. The Quadrifoglio reflects this legacy perfectly — sculptural, light, and timeless.

Ideal for a bedside table or as an accent piece, it offers both atmosphere and character.

This is an early example and retains its original iGuzzini label. The lamp is in very good vintage condition, with minor black streaks visible on the white shade and light, age-appropriate wear to the frame that does not detract from its overall appearance or functionality.
